Heritage Society

Your Legacy Matters!

Your membership in the Marcus Brown Heritage Society allows us to recognize and promote your planned giving intention in hopes to inspire the generosity of others. Donors eligible to join the Marcus Brown Heritage Society include individuals or couples who have:

- Informed Niagara University of their plan to make a bequest to benefit the university through their will or living trust;
- Informed Niagara University that they have designated, in writing, the university as a beneficiary of retirement assets;
- Established a charitable gift annuity, charitable remainder trust, or charitable lead trust to benefit Niagara University;
- Made a gift of a personal residence to Niagara University with a retained life estate;
- Made a gift of a life insurance policy with full ownership rights to Niagara University; or
- Made a verbal intention to include Niagara University as a beneficiary in their estate planning.

Member Benefits Include:

- Recognition as Marcus Brown Heritage Society member in Niagara's University Annual Report and included in formal donor recognition on the campus of Niagara University;
- Special recognition at selected events, including Alumni Weekend;
- Invitations to the Marcus Brown Heritage Society's Annual Appreciation Luncheon and select Niagara University sponsored events; and
- Invitations to select athletic events, guest speakers, and on-campus cultural events sponsored by the Castellani Art Museum and Niagara University Theatre;
- Lapel pin and certificate of recognition for joining the Marcus Brown Heritage Society.
